

Simple Business Plan

www.WorkYouCanLove.com

This step is very important to your success. Take time for this early in your process, but don't put off starting.

If you can answer the questions below it will help you narrow your focus and save you time and energy.

"Create a definite plan for carrying out your desire and begin at once, whether you're ready or not, to put this plan into action." -Napoleon Hill

Business – What am I providing, solving, creating, changing, teaching, revealing....?

Customers – Who will buy my product or service? What does my customer look like?

Money – What is my selling price? What are my Costs? Profit? How will I keep records?

Marketing – How will I get customers? How will they find me? How do I demonstrate value?

Success – How will I know that I am successful? What are my goals? Where will I be in one year?

Challenges – What will I need to overcome?

Extra Writing Space

This Area is for Sketches, Drawings or Diagrams